The Virtues Project

Week beginning February 2/3, 2013: Justice

Practicing justice is being fair. It is solving problems so everyone wins. You don't prejudge. You see people as individuals. You don't accept it when someone acts like a bully, cheats or lies. Being a champion for justice takes courage. Sometimes when you stand for justice, you stand alone.

You are practicing justice when you...

- * Treat everyone fairly
- * Think for yourself and refuse to prejudge
- * Avoid gossip and backbiting
- * Own your mistakes and fix them
- * Protect people's rights, including your own
- * Solve problems so everyone wins

Affirmation:

*I act with justice.
I stand up for the rights
of others and myself.
I have no need to pretend or defend.
I choose to make amends.*

What you can do

We will send you the "Virtue of the Week" with a full description on Tuesday to ensure you have time to publicize it. Please let us know who on your staff would be the most appropriate person (with email address or fax number) to receive the "Virtue of the Week" to ensure that the message will go out. If you have any questions, please contact:

Annette Olsen: 340-777-0990 aolsen@cfvi.net
