The Virtues Project

For the Work Place

The Virtues Project is an international initiative focused on building peaceful and caring communities aligned to 52 virtues – such as “compassion,” “integrity,” “respect.” The Virtues Project promotes community capacity-building to teach positive behaviors and attitudes and contribute to healthy and supportive environments across sectors. This is an initiative originated with a work group of Early Childhood Advisory Committee of the Children and Families Council and is moving forward with support from the Community Foundation of the Virgin Islands. We are working in collaboration with the Department of Education to infuse VI culture into the messages and to implement The Virtues Project in the public schools. The Department of Human Services will be disseminating the “virtue of the week” to Head Start and child care centers with suggested developmentally appropriate activities. The goal is to engage the community in discussion and awareness of the “Virtue of the Week” in schools, child care settings, home, and the workplace through the media, religious institutions, schools and centers, government agencies, and business organizations. We intend to begin with the first “virtue of the week” the first week of October.

What you can do

We are hoping to partner with you to help get the message out about the “Virtue of the Week” at your workplace. We are hoping you will email it to your staff, put it in newsletters, post it on bulletin boards, and cite examples at your workplace of moments when the virtues are practiced by your staff.

We will send you the “Virtue of the Week” with a full description on Tuesday to ensure you have time to publicize it. Please let us know who on your staff would be the most appropriate person (with email address or fax number) to receive the “Virtue of the Week” to ensure that the message will go out. Week beginning October 23/24: Integrity

Integrity is living by your highest values. It is being honest and sincere. Integrity helps you listen to your conscience, to do the right thing, and to tell the truth. You act with integrity when your words and actions match. Integrity gives you self-respect and a peaceful heart.

You are practicing integrity when you ...

Think about what virtues matter to you
Stand up for what you believe in
Do the right thing even when it is hard
Willingly clean up your mistakes
Think for yourself and avoid temptation

Affirmation:

I have integrity. I stand up for what is right. I mean what I say and say what I mean. I am my own leader.
